

ARIES SCONCE III.I

MADE BY BY BEC BRITTAIN

Aries was inspired by the artist Olafur Eliasson's concept and set design for the ballet Tree of Codes, in which dancers wore all-black suits, highlighted with LEDs. Aries creates a piece where the points of light are the focus, and the structure itself is as minimal as possible while flexible enough to create constellation-like forms that recall the night sky, with its bright and sparkling lights refracted through the glass prisms
