

ASSERBO TABLE

MADE BY BY CARL HANSEN & SON

Created in 1961 for his private holiday home and originally produced in pine, Børge Mogensen's Asserbo series is now reissued in solid, dark-oiled FSC™-certified eucalyptus, sourced from sustainable forestry and renowned for its understated beauty and high durability. Radiating visual calm and simple functionalism, the series' bench and chair look to the Shaker style for their design cues. Stripped to their essence, they allow the materials speak for themselves. Gently rounded wooden lines are defined by visible brushed brass screws on design furniture of high utility value.
