

EQUILIBRIUM

BY IMPERFETTLAB

A cone that plays with its shape, turns upside down, distances itself and comes closer to its likes with which it firmly supports the round top above it. In this table perception varies along with the arrangement, while the balance of the structure, the lightness of the materials and the strongly symbolic elegance of the figure remain constant.

Dimensions

Material Options

Black-raw material/white-raw material