

LIGHT FALL SCONCE

BY CROSLAND & EMMONS

Light Fall is a hand-sculpted sconce built from white clay and finished in a velvety chalk-white glaze. Adorned with vine-like ceramic flora, each delicate piece carries a sense of gentle motion— as if caught in a soft breeze. When illuminated, light slips gracefully from the base of the form, touching the sculpted vines with a warm glow. The effect is serene and ethereal—like morning sunlight filtering through a canopy of trees.
