bulb is of a red colour, which is used to create or modify the background atmosphere.

BY SERGE MOUILLE

In his Post Black Shapes period, Serge Mouille experimented with colour and columns. With the Totem, he stacked cylindrical shades around a central lighting element. By alternating the shades up or down, the light's intensity is not uniform by design. Stacked form floor lamp with round central column and wood base with both incandescent and fluorescent light. In this lamp, the fluorescent
